FACTS

WHAT DOES FIRST FLIGHT FCU DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Rev. 1/22

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: ▪ Social Security number and credit history ▪ credit scores and mortgage rates and payments ▪ overdraft history and payment history When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons First Flight FCU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

What we do

How does First Flight FCU protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does First Flight FCU collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you ▪ open an account or use your credit or debit card ▪ provide your mortgage information or apply for financing ▪ make deposits or withdrawals from your account We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only ▪ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness ▪ affiliates from using your information to market to you ▪ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
